

CHOC AFFAIR

Our journey started in Linda's kitchen in 2006; and we continue to delight in handcrafting delicious-tasting chocolate today.

We ensure that our chocolate is made from sustainably grown cocoa, and the ingredients we use are completely free from palm oil.

We have an Inclusive Employment Initiative that involves providing employment opportunities for people who find accessing the workplace difficult. Further afield, we financially invest in a children's sponsorship programme based in Uganda.